

Attention Marketing and Promotions

Parties agree to make appropriate disclosure that artists are celebrity impersonators and not the actual celebrities. The words "Tribute Show" must be in all advertising. In the event client does not make the appropriate disclosure of said celebrity impersonation, client shall indemnify and hold (Agent) and Artist's harmless from any member the artist represents, who may initiate such action against artist for failing to disclosure such impersonation. This indemnity provision shall not be effective if the client makes all appropriate disclosures, and the action for infringement is initiated against artist notwithstanding the disclosure to the public or the event participants.

Hospitality Rider

Please note, not all Hospitality is needed on every show. Please contact us about your show.

1. Transportation

Transportation to and from airport, hotel and venue

2. Accommodations

8 hotel rooms for the night before the performance and the night of the performance

2. Dressing Rooms

There are 8 men in the band, dressing room requirements include good lighting, electrical outlets, clothing racks, hangers, mirrors, tables, chairs, face towels for rehearsal and show, and a restroom.

3. Secure Storage Area

For wardrobe, musical equipment and personal belongings

4. Meals/Beverages

It would be great if some type of food could be available to the band after sound-check, before the show. Possibly a deli/veggie tray, cheese and crackers, sandwiches, Jimmy Johns, Subway, etc. maybe cuisine from a local restaurant, bottled water.